APPEL A CANDIDATURES N° 5/18

Judge Ulf Öberg at the General Court of the European Union, Luxembourg, is looking for a suitable candidate to fill the position of legal secretary (référéndaire) in his chambers, which will fall vacant on 1st July 2018.

The position involves providing Judge Öberg with advice on both substantive and procedural points of law arising in cases before the General Court as well as preparing, in accordance with his instructions, draft judgments, draft preliminary reports, hearing reports and written notes in view of deliberations. As the chambers work as a team, the legal secretaries are expected to contribute, to discuss and collaborate with colleagues on all cases being dealt with by the chambers.

The working language of the chambers is English. The internal working language of the General Court being French, all written work will have to be carried out almost exclusively in French. Applicants should therefore be fluent in English and have at least a very good working knowledge in French.

Applicants should hold a law degree. Expertise in competition law, state aid law, trademark law and/or procedural law is considered an asset. Experience from the Swedish judiciary and/or the Swedish Bar, as well as knowledge in of Swedish and of any other Union language, are considered an advantage. It would also be helpful to submit a recent legal publication in French, English or Swedish, if one is available.

The position involves a high degree of responsibility, graded at the level AD 8 to AD 13 and remunerated accordingly.

Applications, consisting of a curriculum vitae and a cover letter, together with the names and contact details of two referees who have had experience of the applicant's work over the past three years should be submitted by email to Henry.Delescaut@curia.europa.eu and in copy to Candidatures.communications@curia.europa.eu.

All applications will be treated in the strictest confidence. Further details about the position are available on request by contacting M. Mohamed Ali at Mohamed.Ali@curia.europa.eu.

Deadline for receipt of applications: 16 April 2018.
